

CONFESSES TO FORGING 7020 NAMES

Governor Cox Will Not Make Prediction of Referendum Developments

VINCENT'S PAST RECORD

Proves That He Served Time in the Reformatory at Mansfield — Martin's Confession is Corroborated.

STARTLING DISCLOSURES

Columbus, July 17.—Before Secretary of State Graves and in the presence of Prosecutor Locher of Cuyahoga county and other officials, James Geering today confessed that he sat in a saloon in Cleveland and wrote 7,020 names from a telephone directory on a petition for a referendum on the Green act. He identified the names in the office of the secretary of state this afternoon.

Geering said he was employed by a solicitor, whose name is in the possession of the attorney general's department. The solicitor received 5 cents a name, and Geering got 3 cents, he testified.

Geering is said to have given the prosecutors the name of one of the "higher ups" connected with the alleged fraudulent petition.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, O., July 17.—Upon his return from Lorain this morning Governor Cox issued a hurried call for a conference with Attorney P. C. Dempsey of the attorney general's department to discuss matters in connection with the alleged frauds concerning the "circulation" of petitions for a referendum on the Green Act. Following the conference Mr. Dempsey went to the city prison to interview William Martin, arrested in Cincinnati several days ago to elicit further evidence to corroborate Martin's previous statements.

Governor Cox expressed satisfaction over the conference he had with the prosecutor of Cuyahoga county while in Cleveland but would make no predictions as to the probabilities of the day's developments.

Convention of Flint Glass Workers Will Probably End Friday

It is predicted that the national convention of the American Flint Glass Workers' union will have finished its business in time to bring its final session to a close Friday afternoon, after two weeks of continuous activity. On Friday, under this arrangement, national officers will be elected and the next convention city chosen. Rochester, Pa., the home of President Rowe, proves to be one of the most likely applicants.

Official announcement was made Wednesday afternoon to the effect that decisions regarding the wage scale for the year would not be made public here. By way of explanation it is said the work of the committee having this matter in charge will be reported to the convention and approved or changed to suit the desires of that body, after which it will be referred to conferences representing the glassworkers, who will take up the wage scale discussion with a similar committee from the organization of glassware manufacturers, at a meeting to be held soon.

The report of the wage scale committee depends largely upon the report of the body having to do with the classification of new ware put out since the last national convention.

Practically all of the committees will file their reports by Friday noon it is thought.

A score of delegates attended the prayer meeting service in Woodside Presbyterian church Wednesday night and listened to an eloquent discourse delivered by Rev. Mr. Dudley, a clergyman of Dunkirk, Ind., who is one of the delegates.

King Ferdinand Cables Denial of the Atrocities Attributed to Soldiers

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, July 17.—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria denies emphatically the horrible atrocities attributed in various quarters to the Bulgarian troops during their retreat before the Greek armies marching through Macedonia. His majesty cabled the following message through the Bulgarian royal private secretariat today:

"Sofia, July 17.—All the rumors about Bulgarian atrocities are infamous Greek calumnies designed to poison universal public opinion and in regard to which the truth will be established one of these days. (Signed) 'The Royal Secretariat.'"

(Associated Press Telegram) Sofia, Bulgaria, July 17.—The Roumanians today took possession of the cable station at Varna on the Black Sea, and thus control communication with Sebastopol. As the railway between the coast and Sofia also has been cut, Bulgaria cannot communicate with the outside world, except through Serbia and Roumania.

By forced marches the Turkish army is approaching the town of Kirk-Kilissee, taken by the Bulgarians after heavy fighting at the beginning of the Balkan war. Many of the population are reported to be fleeing.

An official dispatch reports the defeat by the Bulgarians of the Serbian forces which has penetrated Bulgarian territory on the western frontiers. The Bulgarians attacked yesterday and put the Serbians to flight. The Serbians are retreating in the direction of Vlasnia, across the border.

Another dispatch says severe losses have been inflicted on the Greek army operating on the Bulgarian left flank.

STREAMS RAISED BY HEAVY RAIN OF LAST NIGHT

Streams in and near Newark rose rapidly as result of Wednesday night's storm, and by early Thursday morning the smaller ones were raging torrents. The Licking river above the junction of the north and south forks was running abnormally high Wednesday, and with the night's storm, it was threatening Thursday. Its height in the early morning was steadily increased during the early forenoon by the steady pour from its tributaries within the zone of the storm.

BOATS CRASH IN FOG; ONE SINKS IN CHICAGO RIVER

(Associated Press Telegram) Chicago, July 17.—The steamers Sheboygan and Iowa of the Goodrich line of lake steamers collided in a fog at the entrance of the harbor here today. The Sheboygan was but little damaged, but the Iowa, with a hole thirty feet in diameter in her side, after being assisted to a wharf in the river, sank. No one was killed or injured but the financial loss on the Iowa and her cargo was heavy.

Both ships were heavily laden with freight. The Iowa had made her dock and discharged her passengers and was maneuvering in the mouth of the river to come about and return to the Rush street freight dock. As the boat swung broadside the Sheboygan loomed out of the fog and struck the starboard bow of the Iowa about twenty feet forward of the pilot house. The Iowa was towed to a nearby dock by tugs and efforts were made to discharge her cargo. Before this was entirely accomplished, however, she sank.

Akron, O., July 17.—The date for Akron's charter election has been changed from August 26 to August 28. The proposed new charter as finally amended and adopted at last night's meeting of the Akron commission provides for a commission of three the mayor to receive $4,000 per year and the other two commissioners $3,600 per year each. The proposed commission plan won by only a slight margin, eight of the commissioners voting for it and seven opposing it.

Deals With Roosevelt's Endorsement of Taft For Presidency

SEVERAL CONGRESSMEN

"Seen" by the Lobbyist in Attempt to Defeat President's Plans—A "Dirty Deal" Against Speaker Cannon.

Washington, July 17.—Martin L. Mulhall, self-styled lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers continued his testimony before the Senate lobby committee today, detailing his activities among congressmen. Some of the letters introduced dealt with former President Roosevelt's endorsement of the candidacy of former Secretary of War Taft. In a letter to Schwedman, secretary of the manufacturers in April, 1908, Mulhall quoted the late Vice President Sherman as saying that the fight then raging on Speaker Cannon was a "dirty deal" by the White House against the speaker.

"Watson states," wrote Mulhall, "that the president (Roosevelt) is moving earth and heaven to nominate Taft and that he is willing to sacrifice the Sherman law and every law to please the trusts and please Wall Street so that he can get their support for his candidate."

Mulhall also wrote of attempting getting Mr. Foraker's "house" composed of senators, "who will oppose the president and his policy at the Chicago convention."

He added that he was told to work against Maryland delegates being instructed for Taft. "The opposition to the President," Mulhall continued, "intends to let no legislation through that he wished at this session of congress and intends to fight Taft forces to a finish. There is a whole lot took place at this meeting that cannot very well be put on paper."

Other letters detailed the fight on various congressmen. "We have sent a special after Mr. Townsend in Michigan," said one.

On May 6th, same year, Mulhall wrote Schwedman that he had called on Senators Carter and Hemenway, Senator Aldrich's secretary and others and was "assured by all these gentlemen that it mattered not what the president attempted to do there was not going to be any unfair legislation passed through the senate this session. On the house side I called on Murdock, Campbell, Nelson, Alexander, Fasset and several others and gave them our reasons why no injunction legislation should be passed."

The letter detailed a conversation with Senator Beveridge in which the Indiana senator declared himself for an injunction bill, amendment of the Sherman law and a child labor bill. Mulhall wrote that he reported Beveridge's sentiments to Hemenway.

"Hemenway told me to tell Beveridge he was talking through his hat and that his hat was a damn poor one. He added that Beveridge was bluffing, said the letter, 'and assured me that no such legislation could pass the senate.'"

Mulhall testified about his expense accounts and identified one item of a payment of $5 in May, 1908, to "Neul" messenger to the speaker of the house. "He frequently did little errands for us," said Mulhall, "and let us know who was in the speaker's room."

Another expense account item was for $18.00 for breaking a shoemaker's strike at Portsmouth, O., in May, 1908. Three thousand men were involved. Mulhall broke the strike in three days, he said, and spent in addition $12, taking union officials to a circus.

Another letter disclosed that on May 21, 1908, former representative Haskins of Vermont proposed that Mulhall's activities in connection with the Republican national platform of 1908 were brought out in a letter to Schwedman on May 28. It concluded by saying that Wade Ellis and others suggested that President Vanderveer and Secretary Schwedman of the manufacturers go to Chicago a week before the convention to see the draft of the platform and be "privately heard."

GARMENT CUTTERS DEMAND MORE PAY IN CINCINNATI

(Associated Press Telegram) Cincinnati, July 17.—Two hundred cutters, employed by the cloak and suit houses in this city, left their work today upon orders of an official of the Ladies' Garment Workers' union. The demands of the union call for an increase in pay from $18 to $21 per week. A general strike of all employees of the cloak and suit houses will be called if the demands are not granted.

Later the cutters were informed by the union officials that the manufacturers had agreed to pay the wage scale and they they should return to work.

NOTHING HEARD OF ENTOMBED MINERS

(Associated Press Telegram) Duluth, Minn., July 17.—No word of further rescues in the flooded Spruce mine at Eveleth had reached this city this morning. Five men still were in the mine and efforts were being made to reach or at least to find out whether they were dead or alive. They are supposed to be on an upper level and may have escaped the water.

HAYWOOD IS OUT, WORKERS GO BACK

(Associated Press Telegram) Paterson, N. J., July 17.—The announcement that "Big Bill" Haywood had withdrawn from active participation in the silk mill workers' strike here caused a break in the strike ranks today, and there was a rush of hands to the mills. Most of the weaving mills are running and manufacturers predict an end of the strike.

Haywood's withdrawal is explained by Joseph Ettor, the Industrial Workers' of the World leader, who says Haywood is physically unable to continue leadership.

DEPOSITORS MAY BANK BY MAIL

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, July 17.—"Banking by Mail" is the latest innovation entered into by the government in connection with the postal savings system. Hereafter deposits may be made by mail and withdrawals likewise effected through the same agency.

When the postal savings system was first put into operation Postmasters were forbidden to permit deposits by such persons as were not patrons of the postoffice in which they sought to bank. This was found to work a real hardship on a certain class of would-be depositors and Postmaster Burleson accordingly abandoned the rule. Postmasters throughout the country are now being advised of the change.

At least a half dozen residences and many frames in the city were struck by lightning. Guests at the Buckley Hotel were panic stricken and ran from their rooms when lightning struck a portion of the building. No fatalities were reported.

CLAIMS DISCOVERY OF PLOT TO DYNAMITE THE AMERICAN CONSULATE

United States Consul Luther Ellsworth of Piedras Negras, Mexico, Compelled to Sleep in Army Post for Protection

GERMAN FOREIGN OFFICE DENIES ASKING UNITED STATES TO PROTECT INTERESTS

Germany Has Not Taken Any Diplomatic Action Whatever—Protest of Mexican Constitutionalists Against Recognition of Huerta Government Has Not Been Received at Washington.

Eagle Pass, Texas, July 17.—It is declared here on good authority that United States Consul Luther Ellsworth, at Piedras Negras, Mexico, has reported to Washington the discovery of a plot to dynamite the American consulate, and that his life is in imminent danger. Consul Ellsworth sleeps in the army post in Eagle Pass at nights. Official records of the consulate were removed to the American side for safe keeping yesterday.

Berlin, July 17.—The foreign office denied today that Germany has demanded that the United States government protect foreign interests in Mexico. Germany has not taken any diplomatic action whatever at Washington. The foreign office is not aware whether Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador to the United States has privately discussed the Mexican situation with Secretary of State Bryan but if he has, the discussion was of a wholly unofficial character.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, July 17.—State department officials said today that the protest of Governor Carranza, leader of the Constitutionalists against recognition of the Huerta government had not yet been received.

It is understood that Governor Carranza combines his protest with a petition that he and his followers be recognized as a faction in de facto control of a portion of the country. The agent of the Constitutionalists in Washington claims that 90 per cent of all Mexicans are in sympathy with them.

Some diplomats here point out that one reason which could justify the granting of Carranza's petition is that the rights and interests of the United States are so far affected as to warrant a definition of its own relations to the two warring factions in Mexico. Where a parent government is seeking to subdue an insurrection and the insurgents claim political nationality and constitutional rights which the parent government does not concede, recognition of that right by the United States would be taken by the Huerta regime as a demonstration of moral support to the rebellion and of a censure on the provisional movement.

Among the tests which would be applied in considering the merit of Carranza's petition would be whether an actual de facto political organization exists among the insurgents sufficient to constitute it, is left to itself, a political entity, capable of discharging the duties and obligations of a state among nations.

If the Carranza government should receive recognition as belligerent the Huerta government would be abolished from satisfying further claims made by Americans in committees controlled by the Constitutionalists.

Just what foreign power had inquired for a definition of this government's attitude in the present situation was still unknown officially today, though reports in official circles mentioned Great Britain and France. The denial from Berlin that Germany had made representations was generally accepted as removing that country from the list. The report that the situation had been discussed by representatives of the powers in Paris yesterday seemed to strengthen the belief that France was interested. It was pointed out that the French have heavy interests in Mexico.

While American losses are believed to have been greatest in the revolution English losses also have been heavy through destruction of railroad property. French losses, it is said, have been largely so-called speculative losses, that is, losses of what would have been profits had not a series of revolutions depressed business.

Both White House and State Department continued to observe strict official silence on the situation, the president and Secretary Bryan evidently awaiting first hand reports from Ambassador Wilson, who is expected here about July 23. From reports from official quarters (Continued on Page 4, Col. 5.)

WORKING ON CHARTER FOR SPRINGFIELD

(Associated Press Telegram) Springfield, O., July 17.—The commission elected to frame a charter for this city has completed the first draft of the device and it will be in the hands of the voters for their consideration within the next ten days. A special election is expected during the last week in August. Nominations of candidates for the five city commissioners will be made by petition. This initiative, referendum and recall are incorporated. The general plan is that of a business manager who is responsible to a city commission of five men, who will receive a salary of $500 each per year.

You will discover that most men are all right, if you only take the trouble to ask them.

Railroads Insist on Presenting Their Own Grievances to Board

New York, July 17.—The general committee of 100 of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors went into session here today to consider last night's communication from the Eastern railway managers announcing that the roads would insist on presenting their own grievances before the arbitration board which is to settle the wage dispute. The publication of the railroad's letter bore out the inferences of several days past that they intended fighting back, a fact first indicated by the insertion of the words "all questions" in their statement agreeing arbitration.

Whether the unions are to sanction this latest move of the roads may be decided at today's meeting. What the roads demand would, if granted mean a big saving. Among other things they would abolish guarantees and double compensation, and reduce by 20 per cent the pay of brakemen in states where the extra crew bill is operative.

The conference adjourned shortly before 11 o'clock, but Messrs. Lee and Garretson for the trainmen and conductors respectively said they would make no reply to the railroads until tonight. On behalf of the railroads the following statement was made:

"We are amazed at the attitude taken by the leaders of the trainmen and conductors as regards our desire to arbitrate our grievances. They seem to think that they are the only side that has a right to ask for arbitration. We think differently, however, and we are convinced that the public will support us in our attitude. We shall insist that our grievances be arbitrated as well as theirs, and we stand pat on our letter of last night."

EDITOR GAUDING PRESENTED WITH A DIAMOND PIN

H. W. Gauding, editor of The Glassworker, father of Labor Memorial day and founder of the Imperial Order of Gauding, who celebrated his birthday at the national convention of American Glassworkers, Wednesday, was presented with a beautiful diamond scarf pin, at the conclusion of the afternoon session of the convention.

The presentation was made by President Rowe, with a neat speech on behalf of himself and a few other of Gauding's friends who could not allow a birthday to pass for the enthusiastic scribe and booster without some sort of desirable remembrance. Mr. Gauding was completely surprised, but is usually equal to the occasion, and responded with hearty thanks. The new pin immediately found a place in the Gauding cravat.

Sprinkling System Saves Rugg Halter Factory From Fire Loss

The efficiency of the fire sprinkling system installed three weeks ago in the Rugg Halter factory prevented a disastrous blaze in the factory early Thursday morning when lightning followed the shafting of water piping into the factory and set fire to spools of hemp on one of the machines.

The heat from the incipient blaze opened two "heads" of the sprinkling system and the fire was extinguished before it had any opportunity to gain headway.

A fire alarm sounded during the storm brought the North End company and the ladder truck from headquarters to the factory and the firemen extinguished what was left of the blaze with the use of a small hand chemical in the factory.

The sprinkling system, which no doubt saved the factory from a disastrous blaze is so arranged that a blaze in any part of the building will open the system at that point. A sufficient quantity of water is thrown to extinguish a small blaze.

The system was installed a few weeks ago and this is the first test that has been made of its efficiency and the factory management is highly pleased with the good work done.

The blaze originated in the main part of the factory building and destroyed two spindles of hemp on two machines. Some of the belting was also burned. At the factory office it was stated that the damage would be less than $100, fully covered by insurance.

Had it not been for the sprinkling system it was satisfied that we would have nothing left but the stack this morning," said one of the factory men to the Advocate Thursday.

The system is manufactured by the Rockwood Fire Sprinkling System company and is one of the latest improved models turned out by that company.

NEWARK MAN HURT IN ACCIDENT ON THE OHIO ELECTRIC

Motorman Marvin Hall of Newark sustained a broken finger on his left hand and several bad scratches and three other persons were slightly hurt when a work car on the Ohio Electric left the track and slid part way down an embankment four and a half miles this side of Zanesville Wednesday night.

John Davis of Zanesville, a repairman, sustained slight body cuts, Miss Grace Redman of Pleasant Valley sustained a strained ankle and Miss Lewis of Holstein was bruised.

Motorman Hall was operating one of the old Zanesville city cars on the line with repairmen. Owing to tie-ups along the line on account of the storm damage passenger cars were not run on that end of the line and the trainmen agreed to carry a few passengers for accommodation.

His aged grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Goodheart, seized a butcher knife, tottered to the child and cutting into the back of his neck, severed the chain. She saved his life.

FIRE TRUCK SINKS INTO A WATER TRENCH

Frightened by lightning horses hitched to the hose truck of the North End company pulled the apparatus into a waterworks trench near the Rugg Halter factory early Thursday morning. The two wheels on the right side sank into the earth as far as the bed of the vehicle would permit. Efforts to get the truck out of the ditch failed and the firemen were compelled to return to their headquarters without their truck.

The North End crew, first to reach the Halter factory in response to the alarm of fire which came in at 1:30 o'clock, were busy at the rear end of the truck pulling off the hose. The team was unattended and the brilliant flashes of lightning frightened the animals. Vogelmeier's transfer company sent a gang of men to the scene Thursday morning and with jacks and pulleys the truck was lifted from the trench. The apparatus was not damaged.

NAVAJO BLANKETS FREE THIS WEEK!

Tobacco Dealers Supplying Smokers With This Pleasing Novelty.

A Navajo blanket—miniature size, to be sure—will be given free by prominent tobacco dealers of Newark for the next few days to every purchaser of a package of Omar Cigarettes. These blankets exactly reproduce the beautiful color work and unique designs of the Navajo Indians. And because of its large size, five and a half by eight and one-half inches, this new novelty is practical as well as beautiful. It requires only eight for a pillow top, and no very great number for table covers, den draperies, sashes, dress trimming, etc.

The gift of these Navajo blankets through local dealers is made to ensure a wide trial of Omar Cigarettes, because of the belief on the part of the manufacturers that smokers generally will like and continue to use this brand. It is said that the plan is fully justified by results in other cities. The cigarette is described as a new Turkish blend of very high quality, with a flavor and fragrance which are wholly different and unusually pleasing. The evident value of the gift blanket is certainly evidence of remarkable confidence.

DEPUTY SHERIFF HAD HARD TIME SERVING PAPERS

Deputy Sheriff Henry Rinehart gets out early in the morning as a rule, and if he has any country trips to make he takes advantage of the cool hours of beginning day. He had a summons to serve Thursday and started out bright and early in the hope of finding his man at home. His experience goes to show that the life of a sheriff's deputy isn't all roses.

He drove as far as what is known as "Possum Hollow, where he found the creek swollen beyond its banks, the road and fields flooded and the road bridge gone. Hitching his horse to a tree he managed to cross the stream on driftwood piled against abutments of the bridge and stopped at a farmhouse on the other side. The people informed him that the man he was looking for was walking down the road with a pick and shovel, but that his family would be found in East Newark.

Deputy Rinehart naturally assumed that the man wouldn't be going far with the garden tools, so he decided to try and overtake him on foot. Though the mud and water the deputy sheriff trailed the footprints of his man—and continued trailing. At the end of a two and a half mile jaunt over heavy country roads, after having been side-tracked twice by false trails, he discovered his man coming toward him from a direction least indicated by the footprints. He served the papers and then began his return through the mud, found his rig and got back to Newark just as the county offices were opening for the day's business.

Besides the "Possum Follow bridge, the deputy found the bridge out near the Harry Toothaker farm, and a third gone from what is known as the Stewart settlement.

Presbyterian church. Neither the bride nor the groom had any attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralston left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to Detroit, Mich., and other lake points. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. In Sunday Night's Storm.
Dr. Carl Evans and Mr. Ed. Williams and their wives of Newark, were returning to that city in the former's auto Sunday night during the storm, and when on the creek road east of Pataskala were nearly blinded by a stroke of lightning. The auto was stopped until the driver could get his bearings and then it was noticed that a big blaze had sprung up to the west of them. They were certain the lightning had caused the fire. It was undoubtedly Jacob Morrow's barn. Pataskala Standard.

STEAMSHIP STRANDED ON BARGE POINT

(Associated Press Telegram)
St. John's, N. F., July 17.—The New Foundland sailing steamship Diana having on board the Donald McMillan expedition is stranded on Barge Point, 40 miles west of Battle Harbor in the straits of Belle Isle. The New Foundland revenue cruiser Stella Maris was today ordered to her assistance. The extent of the damages if any is not known here. The Diana ran ashore last night. The Stella Maris will have to steam more than 40 miles from this port to reach the disabled vessel.

Barge Point, where the accident occurred, is on the extreme southern portion of the Labrador coast and is about 50 miles east of the boundary line separating Labrador from the province of Quebec. There is no large settlement in the vicinity. The Diana left Boston July 5, and after a stop at Sydney, N. S., sailed north on July 12. The expedition was sent out by the American Geographical Society and the American Museum of Natural History of New York. The explorers planned to remain three years in Crockerland.

BRIDGE GONE; AUTO DROPS OVER BANK

FRANK CLARY SUSTAINS FRACTURE OF WOODEN LEG AND CUT IN HIS ARM.

Two Companions, Fred Korzenborn and Esker Haley Escape With Bruises—Car Damaged.

Frank Clary, of 125 Miller street, sustained a broken leg—it was a wooden one—and Fred Korzenborn and Esker Haley sustained cuts and bruises when an automobile in which they were riding, dropped off the bridge abutment over the Brooklyn Run bridge east of Newark Thursday morning.

The scene of the accident, three miles east of Newark, is at a point where the small bridge over the creek closely joins the Pennsylvania right of way. The bridge was carried away by the fresher following the storm early Thursday.

Approaching the bridge from the south its condition was not noticeable because of a rise in the roadway where it passes over the railroad tracks. The machine driven by Clary was almost on the abutment before the absence of the bridge was noticed.

Reckless the damage done to Clary's artificial leg he sustained a deep cut in his left arm and his back was wrenched. He was taken to his home in Miller street in the Bazel & Bradley ambulance soon after the accident.

Sunday night the rains weakened the bridge so that it was only safe for foot traffic and the rain of last night swelled the Brooklyn Run so that it carried the steel bridge about fifty feet down stream. No signal or obstruction had been placed across the road to warn those using it. The car was proceeding at a moderate rate of speed and the danger was not perceptible until the car took the fatal plunge. It turned a complete somersault and landed in the bed of the stream which is about three feet deep at that point. The stream runs parallel to the Pennsylvania railroad tracks.

The automobile when it rolled down the precipice, rolled over the form of Clary and the car was injured by large boulders in its path. The fenders are bent, the windshield broken and the steering gear bent out of shape.

The ball player shouldn't think so much of settling old scores as of making new ones.

One good turn may deserve another, but sometimes it's a mighty long time between turns.

Many a man's color scheme in life is based on a belief that red liquor is an antidote for the blues.

For every man who succeeds in bottling his wrath there's another fellow with a corker.

Woman Is As Old As She Looks

No woman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor's" prescriptions. Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store. Beauty depends upon health. Worry, sleepless nights, headache, pains, disorders, irregularities and weakness of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the fading beauty. To retain the appearance of youth you must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints, ask your druggist for

DENVER CITY GETS READY FOR KNIGHTS

GRAND STAND NOW BUILDING WILL SEAT OVER 20,000 PEOPLE.

Snowballing in July in Colorado—Interesting Letter Comes From Mrs. S. E. Winters.

(By Mrs. S. E. Winters)
Denver, Colo., July 17.—Mrs. S. A. Sween and the writer came to the beautiful city June 19th and I shall write what may be of interest to some of the Newark folk.

This city is called the "City of Lights" and it is surely named right.

There have been several conventions here since we came. The "Turners" had ten days of festivities. One hundred and fifty thousand strangers were in the city at that time. In the big parade there were 21 bands. Some of the floats used for the parade had taken six years to make and every part in the city was draped with the American flag and every house had a flag pole to put a better to cover the street to street.

The "Turners" have free exhibitions every day of their years work and it is wonderful what great things man can do. The strangers were much pleased with the scenery and beautiful parks. To city park contains three thousand acres. Music, boating and horse racing are the features. The electric fountain is a beautiful sight. It has eight hundred nozzles and the water is thrown by a few of these nozzles one hundred and twenty feet high you can see the city and the rainbow. The "Turners" enjoyed the city park for the fountain and the horse racing, but the fun was over when a car load of strangers came on one of the grandest shows. The snow balling began and it was it was stopped, the police had to be called, but no arrests were made.

The American Institute of Ophthalmology met last week for the fourth time. There were 440 men and women doctors from all parts of the United States, nearly thirty-five women physicians and several had good papers to read before the institute. Eucenic marriage was given the official stamp of the association's approval. The Friedman cure was declared a fraud by several members of the society and they went on record by recommending no medicine as a cure for tuberculosis.

Dr. W. B. Hinsdale, dean of the Homestead Medical College of Ann Arbor, also the retiring president of the institute had an excellent paper. He said, "Man is the wisest, but most wasteful of animals" and he pointed out "how man's erring disease has followed his invasion, in both the animal and vegetable kingdom." Dr. Hinsdale closed his excellent address by saying, "That the medical profession should lead the people out of darkness as a Moses."

There are to be nine conventions in this city this summer, but the greatest will be the Knights Templar in August. The grand stand is under construction now and will hold 20,000 people. A great time is expected. We have visited the parks, gardens and different resorts near the mountains, but one of the most beautiful places is Fort Logan. It seems when you come to this fort, you can almost pick the snow from the Rockies. At this fort there is quite an army in training, all the time and they are ready for any emergency.

The weather is cool here, always cool in shade. It has been said "this is the hottest weather Denver has ever known." The churches are not very well attended at this season. Most pastors take a vacation. I have heard Dr. B. B. Tabor of the Christian church and Dr. Elder of the Presbyterian church, also Dr. Hamblet of the Congregational church. The former pastor has served the Christian church for thirty years and has never taken a vacation. He is 72 years old, a very bright man, hale and hearty.

There is not much sickness in this city as yet. Typhoid fever rages here in September. Measles, scarlet fever and small pox are high. Cholera is not very common here. The streets are very clean and the people are very clean. The city is very clean and the people are very clean.

Many friends will be glad to know that Mrs. S. A. Sween is feeling good health and takes long drives every evening with her son, Mr. E. V. Sween and family in Denver.

OVERHEARD on OLYMPUS

Barnum On Bluff

LET'S stroll over to Olympus and see what's going on," said Barnum to a friend, as they wandered along one of the star trails.

"I have half a notion you're thinking of getting up a celestial circus, and you want to get an option on some of the Olympic celebrities," laughed the friend.

"Well, I must say the rings of Saturn have kind of got me going," replied Barnum, with a twinkle in his eye. "Just think, he went on, growing enthusiastic, "what a performance one could give. Apollo in his chariot, Mercury in his great messenger act, Hercules doing a few stunts, a real mermaid or two, though to be sure with the real thing, one doesn't have any chance to display his ingenuity," he concluded a trifle sadly.

"You did work out some pretty good things," said his friend.

Barnum brightened. "That was half the fun of the business," he said. "I don't know that I would really enjoy getting up a performance up here. It would be sort of tame just to sign up with the genuine article every time. No, my real object in going over to Olympus is to sit at the feet of Jove a little while."

"Sit at the feet of Jove!" exclaimed the friend, amazed. "What in the world do you want to do that for?"

"To me, he is an object of wonder," replied Barnum. "I like to study him. He is the greatest bluffer the universe has ever seen. I like to watch him for points."

"I have an idea he might get a few points from you," said the friend, admiringly.

Barnum made a deprecating gesture. "I'm not in his class. Why, from the beginning of time, he has never done anything but throw a good bluff."

"And a few thunderbolts."

"They are part of the bluff. Keep the people dazed, or get them rattled, or on the run, and you can make them believe anything. Most of the time, he just swells around and looks magnificent. And the crowd gape and are impressed. But once in a while, some fellow wakes up and begins to criticize and start a mutiny. Then Jove hurls a few thunderbolts and makes fear they'll be hit, that they forget everything else. Then when he gets them frightened into docility, he looks a little more stern than usual, and resumes his role of running things. And that's the way he keeps the upper hand."

"It isn't much wear and tear on his gray matter is it?"

"Not much. Just make noise enough about the good you are doing, and the terrible evil that will befall, if you don't go on in your predestined way, and he majestically will stand by you. It's easy," said Barnum, as they began the ascent of Olympus. "I wish, though, this hill wasn't quite so steep," he grumbled as he mopped his forehead and dropped under a tree to rest.

"I suppose this is part of the game," observed the friend.

"To be sure," replied Barnum. "But the square thing is to have a private elevator for those who are on."

Omaha, Neb., July 17.—President Hohler of the Union Pacific railroad today made official announcement of the completion of the cut-off between Topeka, Kansas, and Gibbon, Neb., which will furnish a second route between Kansas City and Denver and the Pacific Coast, nearly a thousand miles of which will be doubled track. The new line will be used particularly in emergencies when for any reason the Kansas lines are tied up. The announcement comes as a sequel to recent completion of the dissolution of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific lines and it is stated at Union Pacific headquarters that work now and a way protected, will practically complete the double tracking of the main line on the road west from Kansas City and Omaha to the Ogden terminals.

The cut-off leaves the Kansas main line at Topeka, running through Marysville, Kansas and Hastings, Nebraska, striking the Nebraska main line near Kearney. Another cut-off in Colorado will save twenty-four miles.

AT BLOODY ANGLE OF GETTYSBURG WHERE HE FELL

Confederate Veteran Met Union Soldier Who Saved His Life Fifty Years Ago.

During the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg a number of old men, clad in the Confederate gray, walked up Cemetery Ridge together. One of them was referred to as leader because he had been in Pickett's famous charge. The others were among the unhappy regiments that had to wait back at Seminary Ridge and watch Pickett's men move forward. A New York Times correspondent wrote about the incident in this way:

But the old man had another tale to tell. Not only was he in Pickett's charge, but he was in the light at the Bloody Angle, where Pickett's men all but got over Cemetery Ridge, and he was wounded there. He had come to show the luckless men who had watched him and his comrades run up that ridge where they had come. It is a good many years ago and they had forgotten.

Along Cemetery Ridge were several other scouting parties, old Union and Confederate soldiers, all bent on similar missions. One Union soldier had trotted behind the squad that he was with, and while he was standing there, with his hands clasped behind him, studying the field, the Confederates came up.

"The place is right here," said the leader. "This is the Bloody Angle, and I was shot right here where I stand now. I would have died if it hadn't been for a Union soldier, who saved my life. I've often wished I could see him, but I never saw him after that day."

The old Federal turned around and surveyed him with placid interest.

"That's a funny coincidence," he remarked. "I was at the Bloody Angle, too, and there was a rebel there who was pretty badly hurt. I first gave him a drink of water, and then I took him upon my back and carried him out of the line of fire to the field hospital. Some other Union soldiers must have been doing something like that to you at the same time."

"But, my God," cried the Confederate, "that's just what that Yankee did for me. There couldn't have been two cases just like that at the same time. Let me look at you."

He grabbed the Yankee by the shoulder and looked at him long and earnestly.

"You are the man," he said. Further inquiry but it beyond a doubt. The Confederate was A. C. Smith of the Fifty-sixth Virginia, a part of Garfield's gallant brigade, and the Union man was Albert N. Hamilton of the Seventy-second Pennsylvania. By a little comparison of notes it was made certain that it was Hamilton who had saved Smith as he sank under the Union fire at the Bloody Angle.

DOC ABBOTT IS CITY FIREMAN AT COSHOCTON

It's Fireman Doc Abbott now. No longer can Newark baseball fans refer to the fast little outfielder who has frequently played with and against Newark teams, as Player Abbott.

"FIREMAN" ABBOTT. Formerly Outfielder Abbott. Well Known to Every Baseball Fan in Newark.

When Marty Hogan's Zanesville bunch went to pieces on the financial rocks this week, the team disbanded, some members continued in baseball, getting jobs with other teams. But not Abbott. He had a number of offers but he aspired to the heroic life of a city fireman rather than endure the uncertainties of minor league baseball.

He returned to his home town of Coshocton where he will act as substitute fireman during the summer. He will serve during the summer while the regular men are taking their annual vacations.

Newark people visiting in Coshocton may some day see Doc with one leg entwined about the rung of a ladder while he rescues some fair maiden from the smoky interior of a burning building.

HUNTERS MAY WEAR RIBBONS WHILE AFIELD

Newark hunters this fall may roam the fields of Licking and adjoining counties with a neat silk ribbon pinned to their shooting coats, bearing the legend "hunter's license No. 4-11-44" if the recommendation of the state game warden's office is taken in good faith by county officials.

The new hunters' license law now in effect, the hunter must pay $1.25 for the license. One dollar of this sum goes to the state and the two bits into the fee fund in the county where the license is issued.

The fish and game commission has authorized the statement that no provision was made in the law by which the state or county could furnish badges when hunters take out the license.

"We believe a piece of white ribbon, with the number of the license, marked or stamped thereon will comply with the provisions of the law," says an opinion from the state bureau of public accounting.

LOCAL MILITIAMEN TO LEAVE SUNDAY FOR CAMP PERRY

Company G of the Ohio National Guard recruited to the full strength of 55 men and three officers, will leave at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning for the state shooting range at Camp Perry, where they will remain eight days. This year the local boys hope to have at least three representatives on the state team which competes in the international and national shooting meets which will be held later in the season.

The shooting camp is a biennial event which is devoted exclusively to the training of men in rifle practice.

Incidentally the local boys will take part in the Perry Centennial at Put-in-Bay and will remain there two days and will be given leisure time to see the sights. This has been the principal attraction of the camp this year and the local boys are very enthusiastic over the fact that they have the opportunity to see as well as have the honor of contributing to the celebration of this great event.

While the camp will not be devoted exclusively to the shooting it is the main purpose of the institution and the maneuvers will only be considered as an accessory.

Every other day the men will take their turn at the guns and practice throughout the day. The other days they will spend in the pits behind the targets, attending them for the men who are taking their turns at the guns at that time. Priest stated this morning that at the last shooting camp two years ago Company G had three men that made the state shooting team and that all members of the company have been practicing very faithfully for some time and that he expects Newark to be well represented this year.

Keep the bull growing. It is not right to let him slack back just because the season is getting well along. Treat him always as if he were the biggest part of the herd.

SERIOUS ERROR IN NEWARK

Newark Citizens Will Do Well to Profit by the Following.

Many fatal cases of kidney disease have reached an incurable stage because the patient did not understand the symptoms. Even today in Newark there are many residents making the same serious error. They attribute their mysterious aches and pains to overwork or worry, perhaps, when all the time their rheumatic pains, backache and bladder irregularities are most probably due to weak and ailing kidneys. If you are ill, if your kidneys are out of order, profit by this Newark resident's experience.

Mrs. William McIntosh, 15 West Harrison street, Newark, O., says: "My back ached and there were pains in my kidneys, showing that the kidneys were out of order. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me complete relief."

MAY SETTLE CLEVELAND, O. ICE STRIKE

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, July 17.—The ice strike situation was today: All the men except those who had quit work prior to Thursday, remained on their jobs.

The employers are considering the strikers' demands.

Tonight the newly organized ice men's union will vote on the question of a general strike.

A test vote taken last night indicated that if the employers do not accede to the strikers' demands, there will be a general walkout tomorrow. The union has offered to deliver ice to hospitals and dispensaries in case of a strike.

The City Ice Delivery Co., which employs a majority of the ice delivery men in the city, this afternoon recognized the newly organized Ice Men's Union and agreed to a conference with the union representatives. It was said prior to the conference at 2 p. m. that the company would agree to a compromise.

GREAT DAMAGE BY CLOUDBURST NEAR WHEELING

Wheeling, W. Va., July 17.—Prompt action on the part of telephone operators is believed to have prevented heavy loss of life in the region twelve miles east of here just before noon today when a cloudburst flooded the entire section. Water rolled in a wall out of Wheeling creek and Little Wheeling creek also was flooded, ruining crops and washing houses from their foundations. So far as known no one was drowned, people at Viola and Majorsville fleeing to the nearby hills when warned of the onrushing torrent.

BAN JOHNSON WILL PROBE THE HAL CHASE DEAL

(Associated Press Telegram) Detroit, July 17.—President Ban B. Johnson of the American league will not interfere in the Jake Stahl release matter, but he will personally decide the question raised by the recent trade between the New York and Chicago American league clubs involving Hal Chase, Hollie Ziebler and Borton. President Johnson made statements to this effect while in Detroit today.

"Although I deeply regret McAleer's action in releasing Stahl as manager, after Stahl had accomplished so much with the Boston club, there is not anything I could do about it if I wanted to," he said. "I do not even expect to discuss the matter with McAleer if I should see him here today."

President Johnson announced that Ty Cobb of the Detroit team, suspended recently for an argument with Umpire Hildebrand, will be back in the game tomorrow.

CHECK WORKER NOT ARRESTED AT SPRINGFIELD

Police Chief Sheridan returned Wednesday night from Springfield without the prisoner he sought. The suspect held there was not identified by Fred Schonberg, who accompanied the Newark officer.

Chief Sheridan holds a warrant for the arrest of a man charged with passing a worthless check on M. Schonberg, junk dealer, several days ago. The check called for $100 and was cashed at the office of the dealer.

DOCTOR'S BOVISH FACE REVEALS SKIN REGENERATOR.

I heard the other day the story of the physician with so admirable a skin that all his young patients asked to see him. He told one who generously told others, that knowing the remarkable absorbent property of ordinary medicalized wax, he concluded this substance would make an excellent complexion regenerator and preserver. Knowing the wax could not harm the skin, he began using it after shaving. He soon observed that the old, withered, colorless article was being gradually absorbed and replaced by a younger, healthier skin. This was the simple secret of the silver-haired doctor with the boyish face.

The secret became a public property. Now, when everywhere use medicalized wax, applying it nights like cold cream, washing it off mornings—continuing until the complexion is entirely renovated. An ounce of this wax, procurable at any druggist's, will banish the worst complexion.

Another valuable rejuvenator used by this doctor was a wrinkle-remover and preventive in the form of a face bath, made by dissolving an ounce of sassafras in a half pint of water. This also has become famous—Aurilia in Fashion Review. (Adv.)

Back of every institution is an Ideal, a certain standard and conception.

The single Ideal of the Bell Telephone organization is Service which shall be Good and Adequate in all its phases.

To attain this ideal, high scientific apparatus, together with efficiency methods in operating must be evolved, a harmonious, well-disciplined organization must be built up, commercial methods must be perfected, the financial conduct of the enormous business must be above criticism, and the problem must be solved of growth and development to meet an unparalleled public demand.

These ideals are being realized in Bell Universal Service.

CONFESSES

frauds served time in the Mansfield reformatory for burglary.
While in Cincinnati getting information to corroborate confession of William Martin, also involved in these frauds, special counsel Chas. C. Marshall and Peter E. Dempsey of the attorney general's office, discovered that Vincent had been sent to the reformatory from Cincinnati, October 8, 1907.

He was arrested November 17th, 1906, for robbery and was later convicted of burglary. They obtained Vincent's photograph and bertillon measurements from the Cincinnati police.

Vincent was 22 years old when arrested for robbery. The attorney general's office had received information that Vincent had served time in a penal institution but had no absolute confirmation of this until the Cincinnati records were examined. Vincent is a native of Indiana according to his Bertillon record.

Returning from Cincinnati last evening where they had been investigating details of forgery confessed by William Martin in securing signatures to the petition for referendum on the workmen's compensation law, Special Counsel C. C. Marshall and P. E. Dempsey of the attorney general's office made claim that they had secured complete corroboration of Martin's story of fraud in connection with the Hamilton and Butler county petitions.

No disclosure of the nature of the information which they secured was made. It was the intention of the two officials, after their return to Columbus, to interview Martin in his cell at the city prison and obtain corroboration of details, but their arrival was too late. The interview will take place today. The officials assert the information obtained will make trouble for four or five Cincinnatians, who were instrumental in obtaining signatures to petitions.

Not a mail arrives that does not bring scores of letters to the attorney general from persons whose names are upon the petitions, but who allege such are forgeries. Many send in affidavits that they never signed a petition for a referendum on the compensation law.

Secretary Gongwer of the Equity Association was quoted yesterday as saying that Secretary of State Graves will be mandated to call a referendum on the compensation law on the petition now on file. He is said to be relying on the supreme court to rule that the whole matter should be left to the voters.

Attorney General Hogan, in a formal statement issued last evening, reiterates his position that all petitions or part petitions which have been sworn to falsely will be thrown out. The fact that certain petitions or part petitions are fraudulent does not make those which are genuine invalid.

"It is not my view," says A. T. Hogan, "that because one part petition or more part petitions are fraudulent that all petitions would be fraudulent. It is the petition or part petition that is tainted with the fraud of the affiant that goes out in toto. The fact that verification carries with it the presumption of accuracy affords abundant reason for the conclusion that when the verification is false, the petition is void."

"It is my opinion that the fair interpretation of this is that the sound petition or sound part petitions may be retained and added to within ten days, but the fraudulent petition and fraudulent part petitions cannot be added to at any time. Any other conclusion would make a farce out of the referendum, and its friends in taking any other position are only inviting a most serious attack upon it."

"If six per cent of the electors of this state file petitions for a referendum on any bill, and these petitions are truly and honestly verified, the proponents of such referendum need have no fear from this department. On the other hand, no fraud is going to be permitted to be practiced on the state if I can prevent it."

JUVENILE OFFICER OVERHEARD DATE MADE BY 'PHONE

Lassies who would make dates with youths over public telephones, should be careful to see just how public the telephone is and who's listening. As a result of one such conversation a lass and lad were warned, Thursday by Juvenile Officer Mary Anner, and came precious near becoming wards of the court.

It was late Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Miller was busy in her office in the public rest room in the courthouse basement, when an apparently shy young miss requested privilege to use the telephone. The request was granted and the girl proceeded to conduct a social session, which culminated in the suggestion to a young man at a downtown young men's club that he meet her in the evening. After an argument over the respective merits of the place of meeting, the conversation closed affectionately.

Then Mrs. Miller engaged the young girl in conversation for a time, with the result that she promised "never again." The young man for whom she called on the telephone was on the carpet Thursday morning. Both were dismissed with a warning.

Things are not always what they seem. The fast young man is seldom selected as a bank runner.

Don't try to sit on a fellow unless you are prepared to have him act like a bent pin.
